

TERRITORY NOTES.

A meeting of the Indian Territory Operators' Association will be held at South McAlester, Feb. 24, at which time definite action will be taken regarding the threatened coal strike which is expected April 1.

A. D. Morse, a cotton buyer, while piling up some cotton at the gin of Rogers & Stephenson at Kingston had occasion to ditch some and dug into a rich vein of lead ore. It is so rich that a piece of it laid on a hot stove will melt and run.

The owners of the Southwestern Development News, an industrial magazine published at Muskogee, have made arrangements to send a special car through North Missouri, Illinois and Iowa, advertising the southwest as a good place for the homeseeker. A special exhibit will be taken along to show the resources of Indian Territory.

The Central District Medical Board Examiners of the Indian Territory will meet in Durant on Feb. 23 and 24 to hold an examination of those who desire to take out certificates to practice medicine in that part of the country.

Ben S. Coppock, supervisor of schools for the Cherokee Nation, has tendered his resignation, effective March 1. Mr. Coppock has been supervisor of the Cherokee schools for seven years.

The contest for the establishment of "court towns" in Indian Territory has been made merrier and more complicated by the introduction of a bill by Senator Warren of Missouri providing for the establishment of a court at Vinita.

Jesse, the 12-year-old son of R. T. Bond of Coalgate, was bitten by a mad dog Wednesday and considerably lacerated. Immediately after the attack the boy and his father departed for Austin, Texas, where the lad will be treated at the Pasteur Institute in that city. The dog was killed.

In the Bartlesville oil field there may be seen two producing wells that are only four feet apart. They were drilled without moving the derrick and rig.

Up to the present time the governors of the Choctaw and Chickasaw nations have signed 35,000 deeds in allotments.

Myron Boyle, editor of the Tulsa Republican, has received the endorsement of the Republican club of Tulsa, for a place on the territorial executive committee, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of A. R. Query.

Washington's birthday anniversary is to be celebrated by the Democrats at Pawhuska in great shape and at night a rich banquet will be enjoyed. Prominent Democrats from the two territories are expected to be present.

John Painkiller, a Creek Indian, has been arrested at Tulsa charged with peddling champagne among the Indians. This is the first instance in the history of this illicit trade that this expensive beverage has been sold by peddlers.

COLORED PICTURE FREE.

Splendid Reproduction, in Sixteen Tints, of a Celebrated Painting.

Every person who sends one dollar to pay for a year's subscription to the Twice-a-Week Republic of St. Louis, Mo., and Farm Progress, will receive, absolutely free, a beautiful colored picture, 24 by 32 inches in dimensions, entitled "The Departure of the Bride from the Home of Washington." This picture is a direct reproduction from the celebrated painting by Ferris. Sixteen colors were employed in the process. It is made on a fine, heavy paper, and will make, when framed and hung, a magnificent ornament for the home. Aside from its genuine artistic merits, it possesses an uncommon interest to every American, as the central figure in it is George Washington, standing at the portal, of his Virginia home, bidding adieu to the bride and bridegroom. The color work is highly ornate and correct in every detail, as are the character representations, costumes, etc.

The Twice-a-Week Republic is the oldest and best semi-weekly family paper in the country, and Farm Progress, which is also published by The Republic, is the fastest-growing farm monthly in America. Remember, that you get both of these splendid journals an entire year, and the beautiful big colored picture, all for one dollar.

Present subscribers may take advantage of this offer, by sending a dollar and having their time marked up a year. The Republic hereby gives notice that this offer may be withdrawn at any time, and those who wish the picture should send in subscriptions at once.

Remit by postoffice or express money order, registered letter or bank draft. Do not send personal checks. Write names and addresses plainly, and address
